Sponsorship Opportunities

Why You Should Become a Sponsor

Iain Nicolson Audubon Center at Rowe Sanctuary is a premier destination for bird and nature enthusiasts, hosting one of the greatest wildlife spectacles in North America. During a six week period each spring known as ‘Crane Season’, more than 27,000 visitors from across the United States and dozens of foreign countries travel to south Central Nebraska to witness the spring migration of 600,000 Sandhill Cranes—over 8% of the world’s Sandhill Crane population. These birds utilize the Central Flyway, including Rowe Sanctuary’s 2,800+ acres of protected habitat with nearly 5 miles of native Platte River habitat, to safely migrate.

A Special Event to Benefit Rowe Sanctuary Celebration

Crane Celebration is a special event to raise funds to support the conservation and education programs at Rowe Sanctuary. After enjoying heavy hors d’oeuvres and drinks, guests will take in the breath-taking sites and sounds in our new discovery station blinds as thousands of cranes returning to roost along the sandbars in the Platte River. Audubon hopes to attract up to 100 guests.

MISSION:

Audubon Nebraska protects birds and the places they need, today and tomorrow.

Iain Nicolson Audubon Center at Rowe Sanctuary focuses on conservation of the Platte River ecosystem and the birds that rely on it.
