

What is Platte River Safari?

Platte River Safari is a nature day camp that gets children out on the land -- and in the water -- to discover the great diversity of life that exists beyond their own backyards. Using some of our best local naturalists and educators, Platte River Safari explores birds, mammals, fish, insects, reptiles, stream-life, prairies, wetlands, natural history, art, music, and much more. And, best of all it's fun!

When & Where is Platte River Safari?

This year we are offering 2 weeks of Platte River Safari camps that run Tuesday through Thursday. Both are held at the Iain Nicolson Audubon Center at Rowe Sanctuary. This year, each camp session will be limited to 30 campers and will run from 8:30 am-3:30 pm Tuesday-Thursday. Campers must bring a sack lunch and a mask every day.

Why Come to Platte River Safari?

Because it's a blast!!! We do fun hands-on activities like seining and dip netting in the river, aerial netting for insects, hiking, bird-watching, playing games — all to help us explore nature and learn more about where we live. We get wet, sandy, and even muddy! Platte River Safari is also a great place to make new friends. Our sites and schedule change every year so campers always look forward to something new.

How Much Does it Cost?

Registration is $130 and includes a t-shirt. Discounts are given for additional siblings or financial need (see registration form). Campers need to bring a sack lunch and drink on every day. Snacks are provided each day.
